2022 INDUCTION NOMINATION FORM

Thank you for requesting information on the nomination process for induction into the Niagara Falls Music Hall of Fame. The Board of Directors of the Niagara Falls Music Hall of Fame is dedicated to accomplishing its mission by honoring the most talented and accomplished music community members. In order to preserve the cultural and musical diversities of the greater Niagara Falls New York area, we encourage nominations from all genres of music for individuals, groups, businesses, venues or events that have had an impact on the local music scene and the music industry in general. We depend on the public's input to ensure that the most deserving are recognized. You may nominate yourself or another party by completing this form and mailing it with supporting materials to the address above. Please submit documents that verify the information being presented and include contact information for the person(s) being nominated. All documents received become the property of the NFMUSICHOF and will not be returned. So please provide copies of supporting materials such as pictures, press releases, interviews, website/ newspaper/magazine articles, album/CD liner notes, recording credits, etc. For nominees not selected for induction this year; nominations and supporting documents will remain as living files, whereas the information will be considered with any future resubmissions. To be considered for future year inductions, the nomination form (cover sheet) for that year must be submitted along with any additional material that has not been previously submitted. Nominations for the Induction Class of 2022 are being accepted now through APRIL 30TH 2022.
